Refund

Each program or service we offer will have different terms depending on the program. Enclosed below are the refund terms for our Blueprint program. Please refer to the applicable refund policy for the program you're taking part in.

All refund requests must be made after a completion of a "Refund Request Declaration" (provided upon request at contact@GoldAndSilverForLife.com) and forwarding to our head office at: Gold And Silver For Life LLC, 1 1/2 Miles Northern Highway, Belize City, Belize in writing.

Our refund policy: All sales are final upon payment, and our performance guarantee, the best in the industry, works like this: If you're not making at-least 1% per month (when the average student makes 2.2%) on the starting capital amount by implementing the strategies for 6 months, after a 1 month learning period, which means this refund agreement is in effect up to a total of 7 months from the date of your payment is sent and subject to you having been through all the training, attended all the Q&A calls to make sure I and my team can help you get the result, then send us a snapshot copy of you actually doing the investing, following our instruction, even on a virtual account, and we'll give you your money back.

You as the client agree to waive and relinquish any and all options and rights to claim a refund or hold the company liable in the event of an instance where you fail to follow all parts of our program where crucial information is distributed. This includes studying our learning centre, attending all Q&A calls weekly and being at scheduled meetings. These are vital and necessary to the deliver and our fulfilment of our service. In the event of a legitimate refund request or claim the company will ask you to provide details to support these details.

So - that means, to have an eligible refund request you will send us:

- A copy of your 6 months trading performance on your broker account (a real account) or CBOE (the virtual account) and show us that you've followed the rules.

- A completed "Refund Request Declaration" which provides us confirmation and authority to confirm that you have satisfied all parts of our refund agreement.

Your request will be reviewed in the following way:

1. We will look at if you've been through the whole program (our tracking system inside the learning system allows us to see that).
2. We will check to make sure you've attended all the Q&A calls between the date of joining and the date of your refund request. If you haven't attended any of the sessions, we'll email you back with dates for a confirmation as to why you didn't attend.
3. We will analyze your 6 month account trading history and analyse that with the market via historical charts at www.FreeStockCharts.com and make sure that you have implemented the system fully and make sure you placed the trades when the opportunities were viable in accordance to the rules & followed all the steps to generate your return of a minimum of 1% per month cash-flow.
4. If all of these things check out, and you have been through the whole program, not missed any vital Q&A coaching calls and placed your trade's on time, in accordance to the rules and managed them well, and you still haven't made 1% per month cash-flow, we will swiftly give you a refund.
